

Request financial support (2024)

The financial support for a project:

Small project (5-9 volunteers) AWG 200-800, - (max. AWG 150, - for F&B)

Big project: (10 or more volunteers) AWG 1.100, - (max. AWG 250, - for F&B)

Condition to apply for the financial support

1. The application form on the Aruba Doet website is COMPLETELY filled in.
2. The organization is a foundation, an association, or a school with its own bank account.
3. Your organization is registered with the Chamber of Commerce with the exception of schools
4. Your organization does not have a recruiting objective in the statutes or regulations regarding any religion, beliefs, and/or ideology.
5. There is a maximum of 1 allocation per activity/project location, an organization that has an activity/project at more than one location will therefore need to apply for each one of them.
6. The activity/project will take place during Aruba Doet weekend 15th & 16th of March 2024.
7. Funding requests are made by the organization where the activity/project will take place, NOT by the volunteering organization.
8. The project is located at a social organization; they cannot be at other locations like private homes. E.g., a picnic table must be made on location, not in a carpenter's shop
9. The project is within the nature of Aruba Doet: It focuses on encouraging people to become volunteers, while simultaneously benefiting the organizations. At least half of the volunteers participating in each project must NOT yet be involved in the organization.
10. The financial support is for:
 - Consumables and rough DIY such as paint, paint supplies, wood, wire mesh and posts for fences, cleaning products, trees and shrubs, small hardware, cleaning products, etc.
 - Rental of large tools or aids such as ladders, high-pressure cleaners, excavators, shovels, etc.
 - For social activity/project: the costs for transport, purchase of admission tickets or costs for a festive meal for people with a physical or mental disability.
 - Food and drinks for the volunteers, maximum AWG 150 (or AWG 250 for large projects).

If your organization does not meet all of the above-mentioned criteria, your organization can still participate and recruit volunteers. However, your organization will not be eligible for the financial contribution of Oranje Fonds.

NOTE: Projects targeting vulnerable people (elderly or people with physical disabilities) may be done solely by your volunteers.

Only for institutions/organizations that will organize a project for physically or mentally disabled people:

Costs for an excursion such as bus rental, entrance fees, etc.

- Fees for artists, such as clowns and singers, or hairdressers, stylists, make-up artists as to make it a (mid) day full of pampering: maximum AWG 600.
- If your activity consists of high tea, breakfast, lunch, etc., you may spend the maximum amount on food and drinks.

What we will not reimburse:

- Activity/project or organizations that do not meet all criteria;
- The purchase of tools or consumables;
- Costs to thank or put in the limelight of new or existing volunteers;
- Material to decorate the venue and the costs for printing or promotional material;
- Prizes for bingo or other games or promotions.

The financial procedure:

Your ARUBA DOET application form should reach us before January 22, 2024 (for Early Doeti January 10). We will notify you if we (wholly or partially) accept your application. You will receive the money by bank wire via CEDE Aruba no later than February 23rd, 2024, to make it possible to make the necessary purchases in time. CEDE Aruba will organize a separate gathering to pick up your promotional materials. You will be invited to this gathering on time.
